you make a colour theme for a app? An app I'm building (Cappuccino) allows users to choose a colour theme for their app. The colour theme is intended to affect the UI colours and the overall feel of the app. Right now when a user chooses their colour theme, the change takes effect immediately

(almost) and is reflected in all windows. My question is, what is the best way to make an app follow the current colour theme? I would imagine it would involve: Setting a flag (or variable) that the user has chosen a colour theme Updating the colours in
